

Buyala Primary School

Buyala Primary School has had its struggles in the last few years, but we remain positive and are working with them to ensure the children still receive the best education possible. Happily, the school has a new headmaster and new staff, and the school is in a much better place with 250 children now attending regularly.

