

Serena Primary School

Serena is one of our newer primary schools it has over 300 pupils and was started by Sarah who previously ran Victoria Nile school in Jinja. We knew Sarah from her time there and when she retired to set up her own school we knew standards would be very high! They were and despite its humble surroundings the results are outstanding.

